Buy your Fruit Trees in Adams county, where there is more fruit grown than in any other county in the State of Pennsylvania and the orchards have been declared practically free from San Jose Scale. The Adams county Nursery is located in the fruit growing belt of Adams County and is endorsed by the leading fruit growers of Adams county, in which it is located, as being honest and reliable. All orders placed with the Adams County Nursery will receive the best of care and attention. The Adams County Nursery is located at Bendersville Station, on the Gettysburg and Harrisburg Railroad, 10 miles north of Gettysburg and 35 miles south west of Harrisburg, Pa. Can't you arrange to visit my Nursery?

Cutting of all buds is superintended by the owner of the Nursery and the best of care is taken to have every variety true to name and have many pleased customers who are well pleased with the stock bought in past years and to their trees or plants being true to name and are willing to bear witness to this fact whenever called upon. May I not have your order? My prices are right and the stock must be right. I grow trees for Adams county planters and sell them at almost first cost of growing them. This accounts for the very reasonable low prices. I want every customer well pleased.
